

2013 Collection

amirluqman, a Malaysian fashion brand founded in Year 2004 by the award-winning and one of the most celebrated Malaysian International Designers, Amir Luqman who designs, produces and retails haute couture and bridal dresses, ranging from full femininity to conceptual and edgy. The brand has come to collaborate with ZALORA, creating an exclusive and first ever ready-to-wear collection under diffusion line - Amir Luqman for ZALORA which exudes personal flair for fans of Amir Luqman and all fashion lovers.

Amir Luqman for ZALORA, a collection inspired by the designer himself - edgy, practical and smart. It strongly reflects today's modern women independent personalities. They were made for days out in sun or night, or days of independence and dignity, at work or in going out for romance and excitement, created to be versatile. The collection sees the designer using all season colours such as black, grey, maroon and red on delicate textures such as chiffon, cotton, and crepe satin. This collection is bound to reveal sophistication, elegance and perfection in every woman.

ZALORA.amirluqman.com

###